UNHCR’s Advisory Board for Engagement, and Partnership with Organizations led by Displaced and Stateless Persons

Organizations led by forcibly displaced people, including refugee-led organizations (RLOs) and community-based organizations (CBOs) are often the first responders in humanitarian emergencies and can provide support and services in areas where UNHCR and partners have limited or no access. Community members are the persons most knowledgeable about their own needs, and the best advisers on what approaches are suited in their local area. It is, therefore, necessary that UNHCR and other actors understand, engage with, partner with, and support the networks and organizations of community members, to strengthen and expand the support and services they provide to refugees, other forcibly displaced, and stateless communities.

UNHCR, like other UN agencies and civil society actors, made the commitment at the World Humanitarian Summit in May 2016 to, “empower national and local humanitarian action” and thus, to work towards greater localization. Moreover, the New York Declaration and the Global Compact on Refugees (GCR) both refer to the importance of engaging directly with forcibly displaced persons themselves. The 2019 Global Refugee Forum (GRF) pledges equally stipulate that engagement and partnerships with displaced and stateless persons are meaningfully engaged throughout the process. Engaging with Community-based Organizations (CBOs) is also rooted in UNHCR’s community-based protection approach and the age, gender and diversity policy through which UNHCR committed to put persons of concern at the center of decisions that affect their lives and to ensure accountability to affected people.

Task Team on Engagement and Partnership with Organizations led by Displaced and Stateless People

UNHCR’s cross-divisional Task Team on Engagement and Partnership with Organizations led by persons under UNHCR’s mandate was created to align internal efforts and support various work streams related to UNHCR’s engagement and partnership with persons of concern-led organizations. The Task Team has the following main deliverables:

1. Develop guidance on engagement and partnership with organizations led by displaced and stateless persons.
2. Develop a modality for partnership with organizations led by displaced and stateless persons.
3. Conduct a mapping and maintain an up-to-date database of organizations led by displaced and stateless persons.
4. Follow up on GRF pledges on meaningful participation and partnership with organizations led by displaced and stateless persons.
5. Create a repository and develop capacity building material to enhance partnerships with organizations led by displaced and stateless persons.
NOTE ON TERMINOLOGY

1. Organizations led by Displaced and Stateless Persons

UNHCR’s engagement with organizations of displaced and stateless communities is inclusive of all population groups addressed by its mandate (referred to as Persons of Concern to UNHCR).

For this purpose, the term Organizations led by Displaced and Stateless Persons should be understood to encompass:

- refugee-led organizations (RLOs),
- community-based organizations (CBOs) of internally displaced people, returnees, and stateless people,
- women-led organizations of refugee, internally displaced people, returnees, and stateless people,
- youth-led organizations of refugee, internally displaced people, returnees, and stateless people,
- organizations led by older persons,
- organizations of persons with disabilities of refugee, internally displaced people, returnees, and stateless people, and LGBTQI+ persons-led organizations of refugee internally displaced people, returnees, and stateless people

The term Organizations led by displaced and stateless persons is not intended to replace any other terms with which various entities identify, but should rather be seen as an inclusive umbrella term.

2. Meaningful participation

UNHCR defines participation as, “the full and equal involvement of all members of the community in decision-making processes and activities that affect their lives, in both public and private spheres.”

Similarly, the Global Refugee-led Network (GRN) defines meaningful refugee participation as “…when refugees — regardless of location, legal recognition, gender, identity and demographics — are prepared for and participate in fora and processes where strategies are being developed and/or decisions are being made (including at local, national, regional, and global levels, and especially when they facilitate interactions with host states, donors, or other influential bodies), in a manner that is ethical, sustained, safe, and supported financially.”

3. Age, Gender and Diversity

Age, gender, and diversity considerations guide all aspects of UNHCR’s work, informed by the imperatives of promoting gender equality and empowering women and girls, as well as by the best interests of the child. As we hold ourselves accountable to persons under UNHCR’s mandate, the views of women, men, girls and boys of diverse backgrounds need to inform our interventions, advocacy, and programmes (UNHCR AGD Policy, 2018).
